SERVE YOUR COMMUNITY - JOB FAIR

February 10, 2010

Do you want an exciting career helping and serving your fellow citizens? If you answer yes, then the Bluffton Police Department wants to speak with you. On the below listed dates representatives from the Department will be at the Bluffton High School to speak with candidates and administer an entry level test.

February 24, 2010 from 6:00pm to 9:00pm
March 6, 2010 from 10:00am to 1:00pm

We are seeking individuals that want to be part of a highly professional organization focused on customer service to the citizens we serve. The rewards are great! As a police officer with the Town of Bluffton, you will operate on the front line, supporting victims and witnesses, providing reassurance and instilling confidence. Being a police officer is not easy – as much a choice of lifestyle as a career. It is an unpredictable, challenging life that never stops asking questions of your abilities.

“Excellence in Policing” starts with the hiring of the most qualified candidates. Are you that candidate? To register to attend, please call 843-706-4551. For more information see the Department website at www.blufftonpolice.com under Employment.
