ARMED ROBBERY SUSPECTS ARRESTED

On April 1, 2010 two armed individuals with handguns entered Walgreen at 868 Fording Island Road and attempted to rob the store. When the cash register would not open, they robbed a customer of her purse and then fled the scene on foot.

Officers from the Bluffton Police Department and Beaufort County Sheriff's Office responded to the incident. A search of the area was done and the suspects were not located. A short time later, Beaufort County Sheriff's Office stopped a vehicle involved in a similar but unrelated incident. It was determined from evidence found in this vehicle, that two of the individuals in the vehicle were involved in the armed robbery at Walgreen.

Bluffton Police arrested Brandon Rolt and Harry Lockett for: Attempted Armed Robbery (16-11-330[B]), Armed Robbery (16-11-330[A]), and two counts of Possession of a Weapon During the Commission of a Crime (16-23-490) each.

The incident is still under investigation and anyone with information is encouraged to call the Bluffton Police Department's tip line at 843-706-4560.
