Afternoon Traffic Collision Results in One Person Injured

A two vehicle traffic collision resulted in one vehicle overturning and the driver of this vehicle being transported to an area hospital.

May 13, 2010 at approximately 11:30 am a two vehicle traffic collision occurred on HWY 278 at the Simmonsville Road intersection. The driver of a silver Toyota Matrix attempted to make a left turn from HWY 278 onto Simmonsville Road. The Toyota struck the side of a silver Chrysler PT Cruiser travelling eastbound on HWY 278. The collision resulted in the Chrysler flipping over and landing on its roof.

The driver of the Chrysler was injured and transported to Hilton Head Hospital. No one else was injured. The driver of the Toyota was issued a citation for Failure to Yield Right of Way.
